“HOW-TO’S” FOR THE FAMILY BUSINESS SERIES – (OPEN TO ALL, ZOOM OR IN-PERSON)

Sponsored by: Mascoma Bank (B-Corp), Key Bank (Creativity, Virtual Selling, Diversity), the Breakwater Group (Succession), Maine HR Convention and Mainebiz

1. “HOW-TO’S”: FAMILY BUSINESSES THE “ORIGINAL” B CORPS” - FIONA WILSON, UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

The program will introduce the B Corp movement, now almost 3,500 companies strong around the US and the world, and develop a deeper appreciation for why more and more companies are choosing to carefully consider and improve their impact on a diverse range of stakeholders including employees, the community and the environment. It will inform what a B Corp is and the difference between Certified B Corp and Benefit corporations. There will be a panel of family businesses that are B corps along with advisors on how to become certified and why sustainability is important to business long-term. We will also partner with Michelline Dufort, Director, Center for Family Enterprise/CEO Forum at the Peter T. Paul College of Business and Economics at UNH as a co-sponsor of this program and invite the national Family Business Alliance. The panel will be moderated by Steve Tenney, Founding Partner & CEO, Great Diamond Partners. Speakers include: Fiona Wilson, Director, Sustainability Institute, UNH, Rebecca Hamilton, Co-CEO W.S. Badger, Ben Coniff, Co-Founder, Luke’s Lobster, Mary Allen Lindeman, Co-founder/Community Builder, Coffee by Design, Paul Turbeville, Vice President of Marketing, Pete & Gerry’s Organics, Helen Coburn, Shareholder, Bernstein Shur. CHIT CHAT WITH CAT (RECORDED 30 MINUTE, NOT LIVE/ NO AUDIENCE, VIDEOCAST SERIES)

Sponsored by: TBD

This series will be short, 20 minutes to a half hour storytelling interviews with family business and associate partner members. We will put a "call out" to our members to see who wants to be interviewed. We will do a drawing with all that apply to see who will be highlighted.

This idea was born with the vision to try to do something completely different. While we are typically known for our programs, this will be more of a "interview" with more storytelling from both the IFOB and the member highlighted in each episode. The idea is for our business community to learn more about The IFOB, our members and Catherine (the leader of our organization). By promoting it this way, we are utilizing this piece as marketing material to inform and get more people involved with the Institute and a chance to also mention upcoming programs as we go through the calendar year.

Schedule: TBD

Location: Zoom

TUESDAY TALKS (OPEN NETWORKING ONLINE SESSION, THIRD TUESDAY OF THE MONTH)

Sponsored by: TBD

The idea behind the "Tuesday Talks" is solely around networking and based on Catherine's conversations with members. We have not been able to network, as we traditionally do, now that we are not holding in-person events. We have done some breakouts with networking in our panel programs but find people are Zoomed out, if it goes too long. We want to make sure our associate partners and other members are still feeling the value from their membership and make this a fun, focused, networking event.

We will have a general topic that we will discuss during each networking session. The topic will be around what program we just finished and will “tee” up for our next upcoming program and/or it will be pulled from our themes that we mentioned from our surveys like: workforce, business environment, growth, etc. We hope by having an open dialogue on the timely topic, it will help recruit people to those upcoming events and allow people to network. Andrea Michaud Parker, VP Sales and Marketing for Michaud Accounting Solutions (also on our programming committee), will moderate this program.

Thursdays, 12:00-12:30 p.m.

1. March 16
2. April 20
3. May 18

FUN AND FUNCTION (FORMALLY KNOWN AS WOMEN IN FAMILY BUSINESS) – (OPEN TO ALL)

Series Sponsored by Baker Newman Noyes

Previously we had this series called “Women in Family Business” and have decided change this to “Fun & Function”. The title “Fun and Function” allows us to hold programs that create a break from the education series, while still addressing important topics and having fun in the process!

1. STEPPING UP AND STEPPING BACK: EXPANDING YOUR INFLUENCE BY FRANCIS EBERLE

This session, with activities, will provide information to highlight concepts using the Circle of Influence to Selecting the Right People for the Right Place. The objectives are to learn about the Circles of Influence and strategies for applying it, the qualities step up step back leader and identify areas they want to grow, and why and how to put people in the right positions and some strategies to do so.

Themes: Culture, Workforce, Leadership, Business Environment, Best Practices, Growth, Business Development, HR, Strategic Planning, Talent

Scheduled: 4-6 p.m. Thursday, August 5

Location: Zoom or in-person

Cost: Free for members, $35 in-person or $15 on Zoom (future members)

2. EQUALITY: HAS COVID- 19 BALANCED THE GENDER SCALE?

After a successful program discussing the gender gap, we feel this topic has enough engagement to bring it back again and include more male voices. This would be our second time running this program. The first time we had to be on Zoom so we’re hoping this one would be in-person and bring back the original panelists. We would give it a twist (by adding a male voice) and hold it in-person in the fall.

- Moderated by Noelle Castle, Owner Castle Media Co.
- Panelists:
 - Erin Clymer Lessard, Owner, Lessard Consulting
 - Sarah Halpin, Partner, Back Cove Financial
 - Joan Fortin, CEO, Bernstein Shur
 - TBD

We also feel that it is important to have men and women at this discussion in order for the topic to properly be addressed and for change to occur. We are hoping by changing our marketing and event and column title from “Women in Family Business” to “Fun & Function”, we can be more inviting to both genders to further the discussion.

Themes: Culture, Workforce, Business Environment, Best Practices, Growth, HR, Talent, Wellness

Scheduled: Thursday, October 21 from 4-6 p.m.

Location: in-person, The Woodlands Club, Falmouth

Cost: Free for members, $35 in-person (future members)

WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP FORUM

(By reservation only)

Sponsored by TBD

Breakfast meeting from 8:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. if in-person / 9-10:30 a.m. if Zoom

Location: Zoom or The Cumberland Club, Governor’s Room, 116 High Street, Portland

Price: $35 (free if on Zoom)

We also have the option for two evening programs from 4-6 p.m. if we can meet in-person.

Our goal for this forum is to have women who lead family businesses to have a chance to meet multiple times each year to be filled with inspiration, encouragement and friendship...oh, and of course a great meal (if in-person).

Understanding that we are all very busy women and our time is precious, we work to provide a program that is valuable as a leader and also as a woman. We hope to offer not only solid information that will help give an edge in the workplace, but also be a safe place to share and inspire other women.

This Forum is for women in top leadership roles within their family business who are members and is not open to Associate Partners.

1. Tuesday, February 2 - Zoom
2. Tuesday, April 6

3. Tuesday, May 4
4. Tuesday, August 3
5. Tuesday, October 12

NEXT GENERATION

4 Peer Advisory Groups and 1 open program (By reservation only)

Sponsored by Harvard Pilgrim Health Care

Peer advisory groups are small, confidential discussion groups that are facilitated and allow individuals to share experiences and learn from each other in a safe and open environment. These groups are for those actively working in a family business or who are interested in joining the family business, are IFOB members and in non-competing businesses.

Ideally, only one member of a family will be in each peer group. The Executive I & II Groups are facilitated by Anne Hussey and Maureen Costello Wedge of Quad Group. The Senior and Executive Blend groups are facilitated by Priscilla Hansen Mahoney of Blazing Trails Coaching.

NEXT GENERATION: Executive I and II - Next Generation members who are working at the top management levels within their company i.e. Vice President, President, CEO, CFO levels.

NEXT GENERATION: Senior - This group is made up of Next Generation members who are working at the mid-management responsibility level in their company i.e. department managers / area managers.

NEXT GENERATION: Executive Blend – This group is for those who have been working in the family business for a while and are now moving into an executive role i.e. a Finance Manager moving to a GM.

Peer Advisory Groups – 5-6 meetings each and one open meeting for 6-7 total meetings.
